Dear Peter:

It is my pleasure to invite you to participate in the Progress & Freedom Foundation's fourteenth Aspen Summit conference this August in Aspen. This year's Summit opens on Sunday evening, August 17th and continues through Tuesday evening, August 19th. This year's theme for the Summit is "Unlocking Innovation – Has the Key Been Misplaced?"

As you know, The Progress & Freedom Foundation is dedicated to studying the digital revolution and its implications for public policy. Each August, we host more than 200 policymakers, business leaders and other experts at the St. Regis Hotel in Aspen, Colorado, for what is arguably the most significant such conference of the year.

We would like you to participate in our Monday, August 18th working dinner session. We will be in touch to talk with you about the format as the conference approaches.

This year's Summit opens on Sunday, August 17, and continues through Tuesday evening, August 19. As in the past, it will focus on issues associated with communications policy, the digital economy, electronic commerce, information security, and the convergence of computing and communications. We hope you will be able to join us with your valuable contributions. As a 501(C)(3) organization with no associated lobbyists, we are delighted to waive your registration fees and pay for travel and lodging, which are consistent with all ethics rules.

I look forward to hearing from you concerning this. In the meantime, best wishes.

Sincerely,
Allison Bringardner
